Switch the object to the subject position in the passive sentence.

Use the correct form of the verb 'to be' along with the past participle.

While CBSE's curriculum often integrates grammar within broader language learning modules, the Punjab Board maintains a distinct focus on grammar as a standalone subject. This approach ensures concentrated attention on grammatical concepts but may sometimes lead to compartmentalized learning if not integrated e?ectively with language skills.

ICSE, known for its rigorous and expansive syllabus, tends to delve deeper into nuanced grammatical topics, including advanced sentence transformations and idiomatic expressions. Punjab Board's curriculum, on the other hand, aims for a balanced depth suitable for regional students, offering accessibility without compromising essential knowledge.

Strengths and Areas for Improvement

The Punjab Board's approach to English grammar for Class 7 possesses several merits:

The Role of Digital Platforms in Enhancing Grammar Skills

The advent of digital education has introduced new possibilities for grammar learning.

Various online portals and mobile applications provide interactive grammar lessons, instant feedback, and adaptive learning paths tailored to Class 7 curriculum requirements.

While the Punjab Board has yet to fully integrate such digital solutions into its official pedagogy, many students independently access these resources to complement classroom instruction.

Incorporating technology-driven grammar tools can bridge gaps related to resource availability and personalized learning, fostering greater engagement and proficiency.
