Early Life and Motivations

Bob Carter's journey into the waste hauling and junk removal industry was not born out of a childhood fascination with trucks or trash; rather, it was a response to personal experiences and observations of community needs. Raised in a suburban neighborhood in the early 1980s, Carter witnessed firsthand the frustration homeowners and small businesses faced when dealing with clutter, debris, or unexpected junk removal tasks. These frustrations planted the seed for what would eventually become You Call We Haul.

After completing high school, he initially pursued a degree in business but soon realized that practical experience—particularly in service delivery—was more aligned with his passions.
